Parish Church at Rotherham, England, in which is the tomb of Robert Swyft and family, with crest and inscribed tablet as illustrated.

Introductory.

THE records of the descendants of William Swyft, which follow, have been compiled with great care, from all the available sources, by George H. Swift, Esq., President of the Bank of Amenia, N. Y.

He has written and received a great many letters, and has endeavored, so far as possible, to have the lineage complete and accurate up to this date. It is unavoidable, that there will be errors found, and when such are discovered, it is requested that the finders will send their corrections, as well as any further information of interest to the family at large, to him, or to the publisher of this book, that they may be inserted correctly in any further issue of the "family tree."

Notices of births, marriages, and deaths of members of the family, should also be promptly forwarded to the same parties, with dates and full names. Blank pages are provided, among the records of the present generation, that later items may be written upon them, as they transpire.

The portrait of Mr. George Swift is among our illustrations. He has not been able directly to connect our ancestor with the Rotherham family, owing to lack, and destruction of records by fire, but tradition, and the uniformity of names; Robert and William, being frequently repeated, make it probable that we are descended from the same family.

It is hoped that further investigation may complete the chain.

FROM ROTHERHAM ADVERTISER, ROTHERHAM, ENGLAND.

One of the most interesting monuments in Rotherham Parish Church is undoubtedly that of the first of the Swyfts, who was a mercer in the town. This altar tomb, which is in the north chancel in an arched recess, is ornamented with quartrefoils, within which is a square plate of brass, and engraven thereon are the effigies of Robert Swyft, Ann, his wife, and his four children, Robert, William, Ann, and Margaret. The father is represented in a furred gown, his hair formally cut, and his hands joined as in prayer. The lady has a square head-dress, her hands uplifted, but not joined.

From the mouth of Swyft proceeds a scroll, with these words inscribed on it:

"Christ is ouer lyfe,
And death is o'r advantage."

Three shields have been removed from the front of the tomb, but two remain within the recess, bearing the arms of Swyft. Large numbers of rubbings of this beautiful brass have been made, and have been taken by visitors from far and near. The inscription on the tomb is well worth reproducing in its entirety, if only to illustrate some curious differences in the spelling between now and three hundred or more years ago.

The inscription reads as follows:—"Here under this tombe are placyd and buried the bodyes of Robarte Swifte, esquire, and Anne his fyrste wyfe, who lyvyde manye yeares in this towne of Rotherh'm in vertuous fame, grett wellthe and good woorship. They were pytyfull to the poore and relevyd them lyberally, and to their friends no less faythfulle than bountyfulle. Trulye they fearyd God, who plentiuslye powryed His blessings uppon them. The sayd Ann dyed in the moneth of June, in the yere of o'r Lorde 1539, in the 67th year of her age; and the sayd Roberte dep'tyd ye viii. day August in the yere of our Lorde God 1561 in the 84th yeare of his age. On whose sowlles, with all Chrystan sowlls, th' omnipotent Lorde have mercey. Amen."

"William Swyft of Sandwitch"

and some

Of His Descendants.

1637---1887.

IT SEEMS quite certain that "William Swyft, of Sandwitch," with his family, came from England to America in the great "Boston Immigration" of 1630-1. Savage says that he, "probably came from Bocking, County Essex, or its vicinity; was in Watertown, Mass., in 1634; had been there some time. Sold his property in Watertown in 1637, and probably moved to Sandwitch, where he died in January, 1644." Rev. F. Freeman says that he died in 1642.

But the Plymouth Colony Record says:

"In Probate office, Plymouth,"
"William Swyft, Sandwitch."
"1643,—Administration by Joane, his wife."

"January, 1643, the Inventory was shown at Court. Amount £72 11 shillings." (The year then began in March, and January was the 11th month of the year.)

Search in Bocking for traces of the first William has proved fruitless, as the Parish Records were burned about the time of the Restoration. Dr. Henry Bond in his History of Watertown and its early settlers, says: "William Swyft, proprietor, 1636,-7, sold his house and land in Watertown to Thomas White, of Sudbury, who sold it March 31st, 1640, to John Knight. In 1636, Wm. Swift mortgaged his house and lands in Watertown to John Haines, Attorney of Andrew Coleman, in England, to whom Swift had given his name as joint security in a matter where Roger Spring was the principal debtor. Col. Rec. Sept. 1, 1640."

He also says, that in the third Great Dividends of Town Lands owned by the proprietors, made July 25th, 1636, William Swift drew number 14, being a 40 acre lot, and February 28th, 1636,-7 he also drew a five acre lot in "Beaver Brook Plowlands." At another division of proprietors' lands in June, 1637, his grantee Thomas White, received a lot, proving that William sold out in Watertown and removed to Sandwich in the spring of that year. The farm which he then bought in Sandwich, the largest in the town, is today (Jan. 1st, 1887) owned and occupied by his lineal descendant, Shadrach Freeman Swift, Esq.

His widow Joan survived him 20 years. Jedediah Allen, son of Ralph and Easter (or Esther) writes in the family Bible as follows: "Jone Swift, my grandmother, deceased ye 26 day,——" the rest is torn off with the leaf. As her will bears date October 12th, 1662, and the Inventory of her estate was taken December 25th 1663, she probably died November 26th, 1663.

The following is a copy of her will from the Plymouth Colony Records. The amount of the Inventory is £105 6 shillings.

"The 12th day of the 8th month, 1662.

"I Jone Swift of Sandwich, being sicke of body, but of perfect memory, do make my last Will.

"I do give unto Daniel Winges, his sons Samuel and John, a mare foal of a year old. Item, I give unto my grandchild Hannah Swift, the old mare, if she be alive, if not, the next to her. Item, I give unto my grandchild Experience Allen, a chest with drawers and my Bible. Item, I give unto my two grandchildren Hannah Swift and Experience Allen, all my linen and my pewter, to be equally divided between them. Item, I give unto Mary Darbey my wearing clothes. Item, I give unto Hannah Winge the Elder my best hat and forty shillings to her daughters, to be divided amongst them. Item, I give unto Jedediah Allen and Experience Allen the third part of my Estate, this house and garden being part of the third; I give unto my son William's children, each of them a mare foal; my debts being discharged, and my funeral being paid, I give the rest of my Estate to my son William, whom I make my Executor. I make John Dincent and Benjamin Hammond my overseers of this my will and give to them twenty shillings apiece.

WITNESS.

JOHN DINCENT. The mark of BENJAMIN HAMMOND. JONE SWIFT.

"Benjamin Hammond gave oath to this will the third of March, 1663, before the General Court, then held at Plymouth.

"Mr. John Dincent was deposed to this will of Jone Swift above said this seventh of April, 1664, before me, Thomas Hickley, Assistant, by order from the Court."

Rev. F. Freeman in his "History of Cape Cod" writing of the inhabitants of Sandwich, and the Rev. C. P. Wing in his "Register of John Wing, of Sandwich, Massachusetts, and his descendants," speak of this will as the will of "John Swift" evidently having been misled by the peculiar spelling of the name; and yet, the merest reference to the heading of the Inventory of her estate recorded with her will (a copy of which heading is given below), would have dispelled the erroneous idea.

"An Inventory of the Estate of Mistriss Joane Swift deceased taken by us, whose names are underwritten being this 25 of the 10 month, 1663, and exhibited to the Court held at Plymouth, the 3d of March, 1663, on the oath of William Swift.

14 JOSIAH, born — married { Mary Bodfish, Apr. 19, 1706. / Experience Nye, June 23, 1718.

*Named in her grandmother Joan's will.

The following references to William 2 and his children, taken from town records of Sandwich, Massachusetts, will explain themselves:

"1643, Sandwich—Able to bear arms—Willm Swyft."

1643, Enrolled as between 16 and 60. Able to bear arms—therefore born at least as early as 1627, and, beyond doubt in England.

1655, William 2, Swift unites in a call to a pastor, together with his mother, "Johana"

1658, Record made of the boundaries of his land.

1675, William Senior is recorded among 52 freemen of Sandwich, William 3 now being 21.

1681, The names of Ephraim Swift and William Junior recorded as additional townsmen to vote for officers, and Ephraim and William Jr., and Samuel took the oath of fidelity.

1702, A list of freemen ordered June 25, contains the names of Ephraim, Jireh, and William, evidently William 2, as William 3, his son died in 1701.

1705, William 2 made his will Dec. 15, of this year, which was presented at Court Jan. 29, 1705-6 and which was as follows:

"I, William Swift, senior of the town of Sandwich in the County of Barnstable in New England being weak in body, but in good and perfect memory do make this my last Will and Testament making null and void all other and former will and wills which has by me been made whether written or verbal.

"I commend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God and Jesus Christ his only son in and through his merits I hope for Salvation. First my mind and will is that after my decease my body decently buried by the advice of my friends at the comon burial place of our Town. Secondly that all my just debts be paid by my executor hereafter named. Thirdly I make my son in law Timothy Bourn my whole and sole executor. Item I do give unto my loveing wife Ruth Swift fifty pounds in money of my estate after my decease. Fifthly I do give unto my son Josiah Swift this house and land I now live in and possess excepting that piece of land about the picket clifts I bought of Jonathan Morie. Sixthly I do give unto the three sons of William Swift my son deceased Thomas Swift, Josiah Swift, and Ebenezer Swift that tract of land I bought of Jonathan Morie lying upon the Clifts as ye go to Plymouth as appears by a deed equally to be divided among the three brothers and not to be sold or any way disposed of but to the Swifts. Seventhly I do give unto my son Jirie Swift Twenty pounds in moveables of my estate. Eightly I do give unto my grandson William Swift son of the deceased William Swift twenty shillings. Ninthly I do give unto my daughter Hannah Tobie and to my daughter Temperance Bourn and to my daughter Hester Gibs and to my daughter Dina Perry the rest of my moveables to be equally divided amongst them four sisters and will that all things herein contained and mentioned be faithfully and truly performed written this fifteenth day of December, one thousand seven hundred and five years.

58 JOANNA, born July 5, 1723.

59 JOHN, born Oct. 3, 1727, married Desire Swift, F., Sept. 21, 1752.

Fourth Generation.

15 WILLIAM, eldest son of William and Elizabeth Swift (6) born January 24, 1679, married Lydia Weeks, of Falmouth, Oct. 9, 1707 and lived in that town until his death in 1750. Administration upon his estate was granted to his widow, Lydia, Oct. 13, 1750. No entry of the birth of any children appears on the town Records and yet I enter as their child

60 WILLIAM, Apr. 1719, married } Dorcas Hatch, Nov. 29, 1744.
Died Aug. 7, 1809-90. } Mehitable Hallet, Sept. 1, 1772.

This is the only entry ever made by me which is not based upon absolute record, either family or public, and the following is the authority upon which it is made.

The Record says that William Swift, Junior married Dorcas Hatch. This is a strong proof that his father's name also was William, since the Record attaches "Jr." almost invariably when the son is named for the father, and "2d" when named for some other living relative.

Again, Elijah, grand son of William and Dorcas left on record a statement from his Aunt that her brother William's son was the fourth of the name in lineal descent. This again shows that the father of William (60) was also named William.

Now William (15) the husband of Lydia Weeks was the only William in all the family according to the Records, who regarding age, time of marriage, etc., could have been the father of William, who married Dorcas Hatch. Q. E. D.

Since writing the above I find that Mr. Davis in his "Landmarks of Plymouth, Mass." quotes as from the Old Colony Records the fact that "William Swift and his wife Lydia had Solomon born 1715 and William, born 1719."

This Solomon was doubtless he who married Love Shiverick, Sept. 21, 1740, Falmouth Record.

16 BENJAMIN, second son of William and Elizabeth Swift (6) was born in Sandwich, Massachusettes, in 1682 and married Hannah Wing, also of that place, February 24, 1703-4. The Wings were Quakers from the days of John, the first immigrant of the name, who married Deborah Batchelder, whose son Daniel married Hannah Swift (2) in 1641; and his wife's influence and that of her family, probably brought Benjamin over to that faith. He was the first of the name who was accounted a Quaker, his name appearing among the Quaker remonstrants in 1731, and was fined many times for disturbing the public peace by his silent worship. All his children married in the connexion, they were:

61 SAMUEL, born Sept. 11, 1704, married Mercy Wing, S., May, 18, 1741.

MARY, born Oct. 11, 1706, married William Gifford, Aug. 3, 1727.

62 CONTENT, born Dec. 12, 1708, married Zaccheus Wing, S., Mar 15, 1731-2.

63 ZEBULON, born Apr. 15, 1712, married Rebekah Winge, S., Nov. 15, 1739.

HANNAH, born—married Benj. Collins, Lebanon, Aug. 8, 1743.
ELIZABETH, born—married Reuben Landers, July 4, 1746.

64 BENJAMIN, Jr., born—married Waitstill Bowerman, F., Sept. 4, 1741.

17 JOSEPH, third son of William and Elizabeth Swift (6) was born Nov. 1687 in Sandwich and was twice married. His first wife was named Mercy by whom he had six children; and after her death, he married Mrs. Rebecca Clark—Ellis—Morton, Mar. 4, 1730-1, by whom he had one son. His children's names were:

65 WILLIAM, born Feb. 26, 1711, married Lydia Gibbs, S., Mar. 2, 1731-2.
JOAN, born Dec. 4, 1713, married Thomas Glover, Wareham, Feb. 10, 1743-4.

66 JOSEPH, Jr., born Sept. 4, 1716, married Widow Sarah Bartlett LeBaron, Plym., Jan. 21, 1736-7.

67 JOSHUA, born Feb. 14, 1717-8, married Jane Faunce, Plym., Mar. 21, 1738-9.
MARTHA, born May 4, 1719.
MERCY, born Mar. 16, 1721-2.

68 THOMAS, born—married Abigail Phillips, S., Nov. 15, 1752.

18 SAMUEL, fourth son of William and Elizabeth Swift (6) born December, 1690, married Abigail ——, in Sandwich and removed to Plymouth in 1716, where he died. His children were:
MARY, born April 28, 1715.
ELIZABETH, born Jan. 22, 1717-8.

69 JAMES, born Mar. 1, 1720-1.

70 SAMUEL, Jr., born Jan. 16, 1723-4, married Thankful Ashley, Rochester, Nov. 7, 1751.

19 JOANNA, a daughter of William and Elizabeth Swift (6) born March 9, 1692, married Thomas Gibbs, of Sandwich, October 22, 1714. The record of her descendants has not been searched.

20 THOMAS, fifth son of William and Elizabeth Swift, (6) born Dec. 169–, married Thankful Morey, of Plymouth, Jan. 23, 1718-9, and lived in that town until his death. Their children were:
LYDIA, born Sept. 1, 1720.
DEBORAH, born May 28, 1723, married Jon. Tobey, S., Feb. 19, 1740.

95 CAPT. JIREH, fourth son of Jabez and Abigail Swift (43) born Aug. 20, 1738, at Sandwich, married Sarah Delano, of Kent, Ct., Oct. 4, 1759. He lived in Kent where his children were born and the inscription on his tombstone tells the end.

"Here lies the body of Capt. Jirah Swift, who departed this life July ye 28, 1776, in the 39th year of his age."
I, in the prime of life must quit ye stage
Nor see ye end of all ye Britons' rage.
Farewell my wife and my 8 children dear,
God will be gracious, never yield to fear.

"He was one of the unfortunate soldiers who went to the northward and died on his return."

He took part in Arnold's Campaign against Quebec in the autumn of 1775. His children were:

After her death, May 19, 1806, he married Hepzibah Treat Davidson, who bore to him three children. He enlisted at fifteen as private in American Army and served through the Revolution until peace was declared. At the close of the war he joined the Conn. Colony, who settled in Wyoming Valley, and took an active part against Indians and Pennamites, being wounded in the neck in one of the fights. After the Wyoming massacre he and another, John Jenkins, located land and secured a deed of what is now Palmyra, N. Y., in 1789, and the next year he, with his family, moved to the wilderness, where he built the first house. In the war of 1812 John Swift was commissioned Brigadier General of N. Y. State Volunteers. In 1814 he led a squad from Queenstown Heights down the Niagara to Fort George, where he captured a picket guard of 60 men. Before their arms were taken from them, one of them asked "Where is Gen. Swift?" He thoughtlessly replied, "I am Gen. Swift." Whereupon the man shot him through the breast, from which wound he died July 13, 1814. The Legislature of the State sent a sword to his eldest son, and also directed his portrait to be painted and hung in the City Hall of New York, which directions, as usual, were not obeyed.
